Ping G25 Driver Ed Muzik aced the 147-yard 14th hole on the South Course at Ironwood Country Club in Palm Desert on Jan. 2. The club used was unavailable. Robert Kalef of Victoria, B.C., Canada, aced the 130-yard second hole on the South Course at Indian Canyons Golf Resort in Palm Springs on Jan. 3. Kalef used an 8-iron.

Ping G30 Driver Matt Kuchar: Kuchar hasn't finished worse than ninth here (which is obviously relative, with 34 players in the field this year) in his last four Kapalua starts. He's a top-10 machine, notching 11 last year.

Ping G25 Irons On that list, which ran alphabetically by each state (absent Alaska), every course was the equal of every other course. The project had taken three years to compile because Davis found thousands of U.S. courses had the same basic two-digit handicap rating. So he relied on top players, golf writers, association officials and USGA executive director Joe Dey to help him winnow it down.
