One of the officers who was fired shopsmokingonline.com]Newport Pleasure over his handling of the 2018 Parkland, Florida, high school shooting will get his badge back.

Sgt. Brian Miller will receive full back pay and seniority when he returns to his duties at the Broward County Sheriff's Office, the Broward Sheriff's Office Deputies Association Union said Wednesday.

Miller was one of four officers shopsmokingonline.com]Newport Pleasure who were fired last year after an investigation deemed they had "neglected their duties" when they responded to the Feb. 14, 2018, shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School that left 17 dead and 17 injured.An internal investigation found that Miller, who was the first supervising officer who responded to the scene, shopsmokingonline.com]Newport Cigarettes Shop hid behind his car while shots rang out inside the high school. The union said an arbitration ruled the "BSO violated Sgt. Brian Miller's Constitutional due process rights and improperly terminated him."
