br/>(b. Jan. 23, 1832, Paris, France--d. April 30, 1883, Paris)

French painter and printmaker who in his own work accomplished thetransition from the of to. Manet broke new ground in choosing subjects from the events and appearances of his own time and in stressing the definition ofpainting as the arrangement of paint areas on a canvas over and aboveits function as representation. Exhibited in 1863 at the Salon desRefus*, his("Luncheon on the Grass") aroused the hostility of the critics and the enthusiasm of a group of young painters who later formed the nucleus of the Impressionists. Hisother notable works include (1863) and A Bar at the Folies-Berg e (1882).
