Talk about a golf hazard. A Long Island duffer seeking birdies and eagles on a Cancun golf course instead found a crocodile ? and lost two fingers in the encounter,Grantedbr 25 Sta,????,??????. The horror unfolded when Edward Lungier hooked the ball to the left of the fairway at the lush Iberostar Cancun Golf Club in Mexico. It was in the sand,nfl cheap jerseys, Lungier recalled. The 50-year-old engineer took a couple of practice swings and then chipped out of the bunker. He heard leaves rustle. All of a sudden, his arm went back, and his head went back, pal Mark Martin recalled. I saw the crocodile leap up. The angry female chomped down on Lungier's left arm up to his elbow,wholesale nfl jerseys cheap, using its tail and claws to drag Lungier to the sand, the men said. She pulled me back and flipped me,????, and I went to the ground, Lungier said. The 5-foot-8, 180-pound Holtsville resident managed to brace himself by getting a knee on the ground. The crocodile was holding me down,????, and I pulled myself out, he said. I don't remember even doing that. Martin jumped out of his golf cart and,jerseys for cheap, in an adrenaline-fueled act of courage, grabbed a 40-pound boulder and smashed it onto the monster's head just as Lungier freed himself. That's when I used the opportunity to run with Eddie, said Martin,Chicago Bears quarte, 52, also of Holtsville. The men used golf towels to make a tourniquet. I'm thinking my whole hand is off, Lungier recalled. I couldn't feel my hand. It was like my whole body was on fire. Paramedics took Lungier to a private hospital where, he claims, he was forced to pay the $17,800 bill up front before he could get treatment. The men, and two other friends, split the tab on their credit cards. Doctors managed to reattach Lungier's index finger, but he lost his middle finger and most of his ring finger. I don't blame the crocodile, Lungier said. But he does blame the golf course,nfl jerseys cheap. Lungier says there were no warnings of raging reptiles. He says he stepped near yellow caution tape but thought nothing of it,nike nfl jerseys cheap. That means Grounds under repair in America,nine of which faile, said Lungier, a veteran golfer with a 15 handicap. And crocs had gored golfers before on the course, staffers told Lungier, according to a Brooklyn federal court lawsuit he filed last month against Iberostar in the July 1 incident. The $2.25 million suit alleges that the firm ? which charged Lungier $79 for the round ? introduced crocodiles to the golf course as a marketing tourist attraction and hence profit- enhancing lure. Adding insult to the devastating injuries he faced, Lungier said Iberostar reps began pressuring him to sign papers absolving the resort of responsibility ? and when that failed, it allegedly spread rumors that Lungier prompted the attack by teasing the croc with chicken. We came with nothing, Martin fumed. We rented the clubs there. We the balls there. Where would we be getting chicken?
