ping g15 irons I thought last year that Jordan Spieth had the game to win. Now I know he does. He has three worldwide wins in the past four months. And Sunday was as much pressure as you can have. I would put Spieth right behind Rory McIlroy and Bubba Watson. Spieth is becoming like Matt Kuchar, only with a little more killer instinct.

titleist 915 d3 driver Patrick Reed continues to impress me. To make that long putt to force a playoff was remarkable. The look on his face is why he is determined to be a major champion. He never gives up. He can produce and he can do it with flair. Reed thrives on the big stage. Doesn't mean he won't fail, but he is not afraid, either.

taylormade r15 hybrid In addition, Soto reported, increasingly longer working hours have reduced Americans' leisure time to an average of 2.5 hours per day, not enough for many to play "a sport that takes between 3 and 1/2 and five and 1/2 hours to play."
