ping g30 irons for sale The world golf focus might be with the Presidents Cup in South Korea, but there's another big event happening in the golf world with the British Masters.

ping g30 driver for sale Phase one of clubhouse construction at PGA Golf Club was finalized in February, with renovations throughout the structure, chiefly to public areas. For example, the golf shop now features modern-design techniques that accentuate its high ceiling.

ping g30 hybrid Go left along Drawn Lane and you'll enter Sunrise Condominiums, where charming one- and two-story buildings have red tile roofs.

ping g25 irons What made the night golf experience so rewarding is we were stripped of all expectations. You had no sense for where the ball should be in your stance, or what the yardage was, but you also couldn't see bunkers and water hazards and all the other things that turn most golfers into neurotic fools.
