TaylorMade SLDR Driver Johnson and his mellow vibe would certainly play well if he were outside the ropes among the galleries. There are plenty of oohs and aahs when sizeable putts go in the hole on the practice putting green.

TaylorMade SLDR Irons Signaling a new era for PGA Golf Club, an impressive, contemporary 20,000-square-foot clubhouse is now complete. Designed by Tom Hoch Design, the facility has more than doubled in size from the original clubhouse, which first opened its doors in 1996.

TaylorMade SLDR Fairway Wood Swick just sold a condominium there and likes the community for its excellent location and appearance.

TaylorMade SpeedBlade Irons It's been a good golf season playing some fancy country clubs and bucket-list destinations, but I'm not sure any round was more fun than the one played under the stars at my modest home course this week.
