titleist sm5 wedges "It's all about encouraging the next generation of golfer," said Tom Critchley, project manager for the campground. "Your parents can bring you along and enjoy a weekend at the Open. It costs a lot of money to come to the golf. This is making it easier for the families who want to come and enjoy it. Then, hopefully, the kids will grow up remembering how great the Open was, and they'll come back again and again."
