The Triple White suit

The adidas EQT adidas eqt men's Support RF Primeknit releases in a classic core black theme for its latest rendition this summer and it's nice to rock for any occasion. Built with a one-piece Primeknit sock upper and extra-soft knitted ribbing around the collar, the design is completed with a white midsole, three stripes branding on the side panels and a black rubber outsole.

Retailing for a price tag of $160, look for the adidas EQT adidas eqt 2017 Support RF Primeknit Core Black at select adidas stores and online today. Fall brings a number of autumn-ready tonal shades usually within the olive green and cargo khaki realm, and today we get a look at the perfect adidas EQT Support 93/17 Boost to hold you down until winter comes. This adidas Equipment and Ultra Boost hybrid features full-length Boost cushioning paired with a premium Primeknit woven upper in muted tones of khaki and olive green. There's no word yet on a release date, but expect this pair to arrive at select retailers in the near future.

BAIT and adidas adidas eqt online are cooking again as the renowned sneaker/toy shop teams up with the German sportswear brand for a revised take on the EQT Support 93/16 model. This silhouette, bolstered by the classic Ultra Boost cushioning system, features a brand new 'cage' construction on the upper that features a light mesh screen and support cables that provide lockdown. The full Primeknit upper is constructed in an angelic 'Triple White' suit, but the hidden detail is a secret glow-in-the-dark treatment that reveals itself after they're charged up in the light.

BAIT is set to announce full release details for their latest collaboration, which also encluded the EQT Support 93/17 Boost. Stay tuned for more details.
